

Modern Slavery & Trafficking policy

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

Enable Access is committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking and ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Enable Access slavery and human trafficking statement

Our Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy demonstrates our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

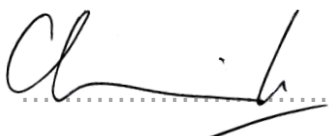

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains and protect whistle blowers.

To ensure all those in our supply chain and contractors comply with our values we keep in regular contact with our suppliers on this issue.

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we may provide training to our staff if it becomes apparent this is required. We may also require our business partners to provide training to their staff and suppliers and providers.
